If no preventing providence there will be plenty of all kinds of fruit except peaches and there are a few bloom on seeding varieties, but we see none on cultivated trees, grapevines killed back badly.

The rains of last week have put back farming at least a week. Many fear the corn planted just before the rain will rot. We have examined and all sprouted and seemingly all right except that where water stood, this we have no doubts about.

Your humble servant visited Com.
A. Carmicle last Sunday who showed to us a piece of home-made linen yellow with age that was made by his great grand parents about 1790 consequently is over a hundred years old.
We have also a testament that was presented to your humble servant S.
C. P. in 62 and was carried in nearly every battle in which I was engaged.
I also have the last letter written to my parents before my final discharge. besides some relics captured of which it may not be interesting to give us items.

For coughs and colds there is no medicine so effective as BALLARD'S ideal remedy. Price, 25 cents and 50 cents.—G. P. Wilder.

ticator.

Bert Jay marketed hogs at Hous-
bold Friday.

The late rains are causing the farmers to postpone work for a few days.

Many people suffer untold tortures from piles, because of the popular impression that they cannot be cured. TABLER'S BUCKEYE PILE OINTMENT will cure them. It has met with absolute success. Price, 50 cts. in bottles, tubes, 75 cts.—G. P.
Wilder.

dren and have never had a death in the family save one grandchild.

Many so-called "bitters" are not medicines, but simply liquors disguised, so as to evade the law. Prickly Ash Bitters is not one of this class. It is strictly a medicine, acting primarily on the kidneys, liver and bowels, and for the dangerous diseases that attack these organs it is a remedy of the first grade. There is nothing objectionable in its taste, it has a very acceptable flavor and is acceptable to the most delicate stomach. Sold by J. L. Sewell

A Surprise

Last Monday night at 8 o'clock a merry crowd of Shaw folks stormed the premises of J. W. Toomey and took forcible possession, it being Mr.
Toomey's birthday.

Mr. Toomey can't object to such visitation if they bring their provisions as this jolly crowd did.

Those that were present were: Mr.
and Mrs. Farnell, Mr. and Mrs. John, Miss Carrie Colaw, Jim Colaw, Ed
Eckley, Mr. Babbington, Miss Clara Babbington, Missess Brown, Johnson, Lula Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Toomey and Chas. Bailey.

All returned home at a late hour saying they had a very enjoyable time.

Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism.

KENNA, Jackson Co., W. Va.
About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for over a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance, her limbs being swollen to double their normal size. Mr. S. Maddox insisted on my using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I purchased a fifty-cent bottle and used it according to the directions and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has not had a similar attack since.
